The Christian Zionist Movement

Zionism, simply a political movement at its inception, has today become more of an ideology than anything else. Zionism is an international movement for the return of the Jewish people to Zion, the land of Israel, while exercising the right to retain authority of government over the state of Israel, which was promised to them in the Hebrew Scriptures. The roots for Zionism lie in Genesis chapters 12 and 15, in which God makes a covenant with Abraham promising him that his descendants would inherit the land between Egypt and the Euphrates River.

Due to the fact that Zionism was begun as a politically motivated movement, there exists among secular Gentiles and non-religious Jews a line of thought stating that the religious background of the Jewish people had nothing to do with Zionism. It is argued that Zionism was instead a reaction of the Jewish people to worldwide persecution during World Wars I and II. No nation would take them in, so they were forced to create their own nation, the land of their ancestry being the most opportune place.

Regardless, the Zionist movement, begun in the late 1890s, found fulfillment in 1948 when Israel was officially recognized as a state and granted sovereignty as a nation by the United Nations. This is when, technically, the political Zionist movement ended and the ideology of Zionism began, and as such, has become a much-debated topic. Some would say that Zionism has become a motivation for racism, or a reaction against anti-Semitism. Others believe that Zionism as it currently exists is merely Jewish patriotism.

Associated with Jewish Zionism is Christian Zionism. Christian Zionism is simply Gentile support of Jewish Zionism as based on the promises to Israel found in the Bible, passages such as Jeremiah 32 and Ezekiel 34. Christian Zionists are primarily evangelical and give support in any way possible to the Jewish state of Israel. The return of the Jews to the Promised Land is the fulfillment of prophecy and is seen, especially by dispensationalists, as a sign that the world has entered the end times.

The Christian Zionist movement is the result of an aberrant theology, and is dangerous on several fronts:

- it tends to distract and confuse true believers in a vast segment of worldwide evangelicalism;

- it tends to obscure the true message of the gospel from the Jewish people, by presenting to them a false dichotomy which demands that they forfeit the Abrahamic promises if they should come to Christ

it tends towards greater doctrinal confusion and heresy, which has been seen even in the most respected and influential leaders of the movement, and not just on the radical fringe;

It Tends toward speeding up the End Times by pushing and Creating Biblical Prophecies not yet Fulfilled and it tends to work against the preservation of peace in the Middle East, by obstinately refusing any sort of compromise.

Any movement that has such a destructive potential, and that has in fact already had many such harmful effects, is no small issue. Perhaps it is time for the leaders of the worldwide Church to present a united front of opposition to a very widespread and alarming threat. But its to Late now .

For the Trump Administration is fully rooted in this False Doctrine . From the Vice president of the US Mike Pence , The secretary of State and the Senior advisers of President Trump is Christian Zionist supporters , They Currently Have control of America and using Donald Trump in Pushing Bible Prophecy fulfillment by supporting Israel.

We have seen this during the 1st two Years of the Trump Administration rule.

The Next action this Christian Zionist Administration will declare will be to acknowledge the Property right Israel has over the Golan Heights and this will be the last nail in the coffin for the Gog and Magog War!

The Christian Zionist Movement / USA Administration in the Control of the US White House ultimate plan is . to Push Israel in accepting a Jewish Messiah from the Ranks of the US Government like Donald Trumps Son in Law , Jared Kushner the Husband of Ivanka Trump and Senior Adviser to Pres. Trump.

The Doctrine of Demons called Christian Zionist Movement has a new division called 9th of Av Christian Believers !

On the 9th day of the Hebrew month of Av, Jews worldwide gather to mourn for the destruction of the Holy Temple and to commemorate multiple tragedies in Jewish history. Today, Christians and Jews are hard at work, creating an appropriate, parallel observance for Christians.

A Modest Beginning

It all began when two Christian men gradually uncovered the truth about the myriad of sins committed against the Jewish people in the name of the church throughout Christian history. They intuitively understood that they had to share these shocking facts with other Christians.

The two men, Bob O'Dell and Ray Montgomery, chose the 9th of Av, the traditional Jewish day of mourning, to raise awareness and encourage Christians worldwide to repent for centuries of bloody acts of antisemitism. Last year, O'Dell and Montgomery created a list of nearly 500 specific incidents of Christian persecution of Jews throughout history; incidents that included pogroms, lynchings, riots, forcing Jews to wear special clothing, expelling Jews, antisemitic writing from Church Fathers, burning synagogues with Jews trapped inside, forced conversions, accusing Jews of killing Christian children to use their blood to make matzah and the rape and murder of Jews. The pair asked Christians to spend time on the 9th of Av last year, reviewing the preliminary list and to consider fasting for a portion of the day as well as reading the Book of Lamentations.

They also encouraged Christians to sign a declaration acknowledging “the long and horrific history of antisemitic atrocities committed against Jews”, declaring their repentance for the actions and their wish to now stand in solidarity with Israel and the Jewish people. Close to 2,000 Christians did so and the feedback O'Dell and Montgomery got was remarkable. Laura Densmore was one of last year's participants. She told Breaking Israel News that the experience changed her forever. “A year ago, as we approached the 9th of Av. we found out about The LIST. Our prayer phone conference gathered on the 9th of Av. There are five of us and each of us shared an event that ‘cut her heart’.

“A very heavy spirit of repentance came upon us. One woman prayed that this should go to a wider audience. A week later, we debriefed about how The LIST had changed our hearts. It was a very powerful time.”

A New Initiative

From those modest beginnings, a new initiative, Nations' 9th of Av, was created. This year, an entire team of Christians and Jews are working together to help shepherd many more Christians through the process of becoming aware of and repenting for sins committed against the Jewish people.

According to O'Dell, a core member of the Nations' 9th of Av team, reviewing The LIST, participating in the suggested fast and repentance are important to improve their relationship with the Jewish people. He told Breaking Israel News that this process identically parallels the project's foundational verses in Zechariah.

Thus said the lord of Hosts: The fast of the fourth month, the fast of the fifth month, the fast of the seventh month, and the fast of the tenth month shall become occasions for joy and gladness, happy festivals for the House of Yehuda; but you must love honesty and integrity. Thus said the lord of Hosts: Peoples and the inhabitants of many cities shall yet come— the inhabitants of one shall go to the other and say, “Let us go and entreat the favor of Hashem, let us seek the lord of Hosts; I will go, too.” The many peoples and the multitude of nations shall come to seek the lord of Hosts in Yerushalayim and to entreat the favor of Hashem. Thus said the lord of Hosts: In those days, ten men from nations of every tongue will take hold—they will take hold of every Yehudi by a corner of his cloak and say, “Let us go with you, for we have heard that Hashem is with you.” Zechariah 8:19-23

“Many Breaking Israel News readers find their hearts drawn to Israel and the Jewish people. Something inside them is whispering in their ear that “it’s not enough”. There is more work needed.

“Our goal is to provide access for how those readers can take their relationship to Israel to a whole other level. We want to transform the hearts of Christians, one Christian at a time, to fully repent with their actions. Repentance is not what you believe; it’s what you do. We hope that they will observe the 9th of Av wherever they are this year. ”

The Conference in Jerusalem

This year’s Nations’ 9th of Av initiative is multi-faceted. The core event is a week-long conference in Jerusalem, scheduled for August 9-16, 2019. There are already 100 attendees registered and another 100 are expected to join.

The conference will include a full Shabbat experience immediately preceding the 9th of Av. “The night of the 9th of Av, we’re going to hear Lamentations [first in Hebrew then in English]. We will not be repenting on the atrocities in the evening. That will begin in the daytime at the southern steps of the Temple Mount. We just want to be with the Jewish people [in the evening].

“The goal [of the conference] is to come to Jerusalem to meet Jews in Judea and Samaria and find projects we might want to support. The week is about touring and meeting Jews in the Land. We will finish on Tu B’Av on Har Gerizim with HaYovel.”

Worldwide Support

The team has put together multiple resources for those who cannot come to Jerusalem for the conference.

The LIST: Persecution of Jews by Christians Throughout History will be published by Root Source Press. According to O’Dell, the book is over 400 pages long, “with expanded descriptions, carefully researched references, and new items added, for a total of more than 850 persecution events.” Christians who sign the Declaration of Repentance gain immediate access to a free sample of the expanded list.

Root Source Press will also publish 40 Days of Repentance: A Companion Guide to The LIST. Edited by Densmore, the Companion Guide includes one devotional a day, based on 40 different events from the The LIST. It educates readers about the significance of certain key events and suggests appropriate prayers.

Densmore told Breaking Israel News, “It takes many, many hours to go through [The LIST]. The idea came to me to prepare a 40-day devotional as a way to absorb and reflect on what The LIST contains. This 40-day devotional can be used as a repentance prayer journey leading up to the 9th of Av or leading up to Yom Kippur.”

Densmore continued, “Reading through The LIST can be likened to this: it is like I have been attending a familiar and well-loved church for a long time, but then I discover a staircase leading down to the basement. I didn’t know there was a basement in my church. I walk down the stairs to the basement, but it is pitch black down there. What should I do?

“I could just go back upstairs and ignore the basement. Instead, I look for and then find the light switch (that is, I read The LIST), the light turns on and now the room is filled with light. It is a chamber of horrors and torture used against the Jewish people. In my basement. of my church. It is now between me and the Lord for me to decide what I will do about this. The LIST turns on the light in the basement.

“Leviticus 26:40-42, is the cornerstone of what we’re doing,” Densmore explained.

And they shall confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, in that they trespassed against Me, yea, were hostile to Me. When I, in turn, have been hostile to them and have removed them into the land of their enemies, then at last shall their obdurate heart humble itself, and they shall atone for their iniquity. Then will I remember My covenant with Yaakov; I will remember also My covenant with Yitzchak, and also My covenant with Avraham; and I will remember the land.
Leviticus 26:40-42

The 40 days preceding the 9th of Av begins this year on July 3. Christians who sign the Declaration of Repentance will also receive a free sample of the Companion Guide. Both books can be pre-ordered on the Nations’ 9th of Av Marketplace.

O’Dell and the entire team are encouraging Christians to come together to observe the 9th of Av wherever they are. Beyond The LIST and the Companion Guide, they are preparing additional ideas and resources.

“We prefer that they come together with other Christians,” O’Dell said. The project will offer “conference calls to join with other Christians to pray during this day, to stop what they are doing while the Jews, in their time zone, are mourning the loss of their Temple.”

From Awareness to Action

O’Dell emphasized that, “We are beginning a process of finding appropriate observance for this Jewish holiday. We as Christians see from the historical truth that we now come alongside the Jewish people in their greatest day of mourning and take this opportunity to acknowledge the Christian history that has participated in making this day a day of tragedy. I’ve been a Christian all my life and I’d never heard of this. We need to raise these questions to the Church,” he stated.

The project's website makes clear that, "This event is not about the evangelization of Jews." O'Dell shared that, "It's more about finding an appropriate Christian observance of a day that is already part of the Jewish calendar. The historical record of Christian participation on this day is pretty awful. This will be an annual event. This whole process is about repentance." Drawing a parallel to Zechariah 8:23, he said, "True repentance is grabbing onto the Jew and saying 'Let us go with you because God is with you.' This is exactly what has not happened often enough in the last 2,000 years."

Densmore spoke emotionally. "It is my deep heart's desire to heal the divide between Jews and Christians. As we weep and repent, the mortar of the wall between Jews and Christians begins to melt and the stones can lie flat and be used to build a bridge, instead of a wall. We have blood on our hands. We've inherited it. And when you see that blood, it breaks your heart and you must respond," she concluded.

The True Gospel

To Identify a Fake False Replica, You need to study the True Original Very careful.

What is the True Gospel?"

Answer: The True Gospel is the good news that God saves sinners. Man is by nature sinful and separated from God with no hope of remedying that situation. But God, by His power, provided the means of man's redemption in the death, burial and resurrection of the Savior, His Son – Jesus Christ.

The word "gospel" literally means "good news." But to truly comprehend how good this news is, we must first understand the bad news. As a result of the fall of man in the Garden of Eden

(Gen 3:6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.), every part of man—his mind, will, emotions and flesh—have been corrupted by sin. Because of man's sinful nature, he does not and cannot seek God. He has no desire to come to God and, in fact, his mind is hostile toward God (Rom 8:7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.).

God has declared that man's sin dooms him to an eternity in hell, separated from God. It is in hell that man pays the penalty of sin against a holy and righteous God. This would be bad news indeed if there were no remedy.

But in the gospel, God, in His mercy, has provided that remedy, a substitute for us—Jesus Christ—who came to pay the penalty for our sin by His sacrifice on the cross. This is the essence of the gospel which Paul preached to the Corinthians. In 1 Corinthians 15:2-4, he explains the three elements of the gospel—the death, burial and resurrection of Christ on our behalf. Our old nature died with Christ on the cross and was buried with Him 1 Cor 15:2 – 4 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

. Then we were resurrected with Him to a new life

(Rom 6:4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

Rom 6:5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

Rom 6:6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

Rom 6:7 For he that is dead is freed from sin.

Rom 6:8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:).

Paul tells us to “hold firmly” to this true gospel, the only one which saves. Believing in any other gospel is to believe in vain. In Romans 1:16-17, Paul also declares that the true gospel is the “power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes” by which he means that salvation is not achieved by man’s efforts, but by the grace of God through the gift of faith

(Eph 2:8 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Eph 2:9 Not of works, lest any man should boast).

Because of the gospel, through the power of God, those who believe in Christ (Rom 10:9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.) are not just saved from hell. We are, in fact, given a completely new nature (2Co 5:17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.)

with a changed heart and a new desire, will, and attitude that are manifested in good works. This is the fruit the Holy Spirit produces in us by His power. Works are never the means of salvation, but they are the proof of it (Eph 2:10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.).

Those who are saved by the power of God will always show the evidence of salvation by a changed life.

Jesus clear indicated the 3 Major Steps to Heaven , Becoming a New Born in Rebirth , Then Following Jesus through the Grave called the Baptism in Water and then receive the Baptism of the Holy Spirit (Joh 3 v 3 – 5).

Jesus indicated that we know the Way to our Heavenly Home. as he stated in John 14:1 – 4 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

4 Primary Points

- Repent of your Sin and accept Jesus Christ as your Savior and Sin no more.
- Follow Jesus through the water grave of the Baptism.
- By being sin free receive the Baptism of the Holy Spirit , your Gift and bare the Fruits by working in the Kingdom of God.
- Await the return of Jesus for at His return we will be taken up to Heaven to be with Him forever.

If anybody else bring you any other Gospel, or make diversions or alterations from the True Good News Gospel they are False Prophets.
